

Cancellation Policy

As much as I HATE having to do this, if I'm not given a 24 hour notice, I have to charge a $75 fee. This is because I am almost full and need all the slots I can get for those who need help and cannot yet get in with me. I hope you will understand and we can both be respectful of one another's time.

I, _____, understand that if I do not give a 24 hour notice prior to cancelling, I will be charged a $75 fee.
